BOOKS NOW FIRST ADVERTISED AS PUBLISHED. 134—139

47, Ludgate Hill: April 1, 1853.

THE new books of the month, or such as will appear during its course, include Chamois Hunting in Bavaria, by Charles Bonner, furnishing an entirely new field for exciting adventure and scenes for admirably graphic illustration;—the new volume of Dr. Merle d'Aubigné's History of the Reformation, which will, by arrangement of the different publishers, appear uniformly with the various authorised editions;—Mr. Collier's new edition of Shakspere, in one volume, with the text regulated from the old copies and from the recently discovered folio of 1632, with the MS. corrections;—the 3d and 4th volumes of Moore's Life;—Eighteen Years on the Gold Coast of Africa, by Mr. Brodie Cruickshank;—Sir J. P. Kaye-Shuttleworth on Public Education;—Burton's History of Scotland, in 2 vols.;—the Fall of the Roman Republic, by the Rev. Charles Merivale, Author of History of the Romans under the Empire;—the 2d volume of Dr. Bunsen's historical investigation as to "Egypt's Place in Universal History";—the Art-Student in Munich, by Anna Mary Howitt;—Risen from the Ranks, or Conduct versus Caste, by the Rev. Erskine Neale;—the first Part of Sunday Readings for Christian Families, edited by Dr. Kitto, is published this day.

New editions are ready of Mrs. Markham's far-famed History of England, in 1 vol., with numerous additional illustrations, at a reduced price;—of Dr. Roget's Thesaurus of the English Language;—Sir H. De la Beche's Geological Observer;—Miss Mitford's Recollections of her Literary Life;—Cheaper edition of "The Initials";—of Walton's Angler, rendered more attractive than ever by the style in which it is produced by Messrs. Ingram and Cooke, with 50 engravings. Likewise, preparing, of Sharon Turner's History of England during the Middle Ages;—of Lord Jeffrey's Contributions to the Edinburgh Review, uniform with the one-volume edition of Macaulay's Essays;—of Bp. Heber's Life of Jeremy Taylor, forming the first volume of the recent edition of the Works edited by the Rev. Charles Page Eden; of Lockhart's Ancient Spanish Ballads, a cheaper edition.—Works in the press, and expected during the season, include the Memoirs of Charles Mordaunt, Earl of Peterborough, by the Author of Hochelaga;—Travels in Siberia, by S. S. Hill, Esq. 2 vols.

The first number of Mr. Knight's English Cyclopaedia (based upon the Penny Cyclopædia) will appear at the end of the present month: it will be printed by Messrs. Bradbury and Evans, and issued in weekly and monthly parts, and the Conductor "hopes to produce the best and cheapest Cyclopædia of any time or country." The issue of Sir A. Alison's History of Europe will also commence at the end of the month, and appear weekly, monthly, and in quarterly volumes.

Mr. Parker of Oxford is bringing out a popular series of short Sermons for the Christian Seasons, of a practical and devotional character, fit for family reading, or to be lent or given to the poor. The same publisher has commenced a cheap and plain Commentary on the Gospels, and has also just published a continuation of the late lamented Mr. Hudson Turner's Domestic Architecture of England. Mr. Parker himself, we understand, is the author of the volume; and all those who have profited by his popular Glossary of Architecture will be prepared for a clever and interesting book.

Correspondence by the last Steamer from the United States refers to matters regarding the proposed International Treaty as in "status quo," and to there being little probability of the treaty being confirmed by the senate during the "extra session."—Important additional copy for Mrs. Stowe's Key to Uncle Tom's Cabin was received, and with it the intelligence of the dangerous illness of the author, whose physical powers are represented to have been severely taxed in the completion of the work. The announcement of her publishers will be found in another column.

MR. EDWARD HUGHES'S NEW EDUCATIONAL WORKS.

SLECT SPECIMENS of ENGLISH PROSE; for the Use of Schools and Private Reading; comprising Pieces relative to:—1. Natural History and Geography; 2. Biography and Civil History; 3. Education and the Progress of Society; 4. The Sea and Maritime Adventure; 5. The Imagination and Sympathetic Affections; 6. Science and General Knowledge; 7. Religion and Morals. In a thick Volume, fcp. 8vo. 4s. 6d. cloth.

* * This book is intended to be a companion volume to the "Select Specimens of English Poetry." The selections are in a great measure from modern works, many of which have not hitherto been introduced into School Books. Though the bulk of the work is prose, yet a few congenial poetical pieces have been interspersed to give variety to the readings. In the volume of Poetry, the prose is subordinate; but in that of Prose, it is the Poetry that takes the second place. In each, however, the one throws light on the other.—Also,

OUTLINES of SCRIPTURE GEOGRAPHY and HISTORY: illustrating the Historical Portions of the Old and New Testaments. Designed for the Use of Schools and for Private Reading. 1 thick vol. fcp. 8vo. with 12 full-coloured Maps, 4s. 6d. cloth.

BIBLIOTHECA CLASSICA.

Now ready, in 8vo. price 18s. cloth,

THE WORKS OF HORACE :

With a COMMENTARY by the Rev. ARTHUR JOHN MACLEANE, M.A., Trinity College, Cambridge; Being the Second Volume of "THE BIBLIOTHECA CLASSICA."

Edited by GEO. LONG, M.A.; and the Rev. A. J. MACLEANE, M.A., Trinity College, Cambridge.

Also, recently published, price 16s. cloth,

CICERO'S ORATIONS against VERRES; forming Volume I. of CICERO'S ORATIONS, with English Notes, &c. By GEORGE LONG, M.A., and being the First Volume of "The Bibliotheca Classica."

"We hardly know which to admire most,—the great learning, the acute observation, or the sound judgment which everywhere strikes our attention. Mr. Long is no pedant: he does not waste words on scholastic trivialities. If a passage is difficult to him, he does not, like many annotators, attempt to disguise the fact, by putting off the reader with a laboured translation, which may mean anything or nothing:—he can afford to be candid in his confessions; and we are glad to find him setting so good an example. His hesitation on some few minor points gives all the more weight to the rest of his statements. We hope the remaining works of this series may be worthy of the first. In that case the publication of the 'Bibliotheca Classica' will be an event worth remembering among the other memorable events of this remarkable year."

NEW WORKS.

With Tinted Lithographs, and a New Map by Petermann, 2 vols. 8vo. cloth, price 21s.

NARRATIVE of the VOYAGE of H.M.S. HERALD, under the command of Captain Henry Kellett, R.N., C.B., during the Years 1845-51; being a Circumnavigation of the Globe, and Three Cruizes to the Arctic Regions in Search of Sir John Franklin. By BERTHOLD SEEMANN, F.L.S., Member of the Imperial Acad. Nat. Curiosorum, Naturalist of the Expedition.

"Mr. Seemann, while abstaining from all fictitious colouring, describes the various scenes in his long voyage graphically and clearly, taking care not to overload his pages with dry and technical science. His narrative is at once instructive and pleasing."—ATHENÆUM.

With Tinted Lithographs, and New Map by Arrowsmith, 1 vol. 8vo. price 15s.

WESTERN HIMALAYA and TIBET: the Narrative of a Journey through the Mountains of Northern India, during the Years 1847 and 1848. By THOMAS THOMSON, M.D., Assistant-Surgeon, Bengal Army.

"Few more valuable volumes of travels than this by Dr. Thomson have been for a long time past published. Long after the interest which its novelty will create shall have passed away, it will be a standard book of reference on account of the valuable facts which it contains, and of the spirit of sound observation in which it is written."—ATHENÆUM.

With 24 Vignettes by GEORGE CRUIKSHANK, 12mo. price 8s.

TALPA; or, the Chronicles of a Clay Farm. By C. W. H.

"To find so much practical truth, conveyed with such brilliancy of fancy and literary power, is somewhat unusual in agricultural literature; but we have scarcely ever seen a more successful illustration of the author's motto from Horace, of telling the truth in a laughing way.... It will soon attain, as it deserves, a very high degree of popularity." CALEDONIAN MERCURY.

One Vol. crown 8vo. price 6s.

PARKS and PLEASURE-GROUNDS; or, Practical Notes on Country Residences, Villas, Public Parks, and Gardens. By CHARLES H. J. SMITH, Landscape Gardener and Garden Architect; Fellow of the Royal Scottish Society of Arts, Caledonian Horticultural Society, &c.

"The author gives the result of some twenty years' study and observation in a methodical form and practical style. Nature seems to have been chiefly his great text-book, and the experience of a man of ability and taste is extremely valuable."

Caution to Booksellers and the Public.

THE Publishers of WEBSTER'S DICTIONARY, Royal 8vo. feel once more the necessity of calling attention to the undermentioned NOTICE, as another inferior English Dictionary is being advertised as WEBSTER IMPROVED.

Third Edition, just ready,

Webster's Dictionary of the English Language : exhibiting the Origin, Orthography, Pronunciation, and Definition of Words ; comprising also a Synopsis of Words differently pronounced by different Orthoepists, and Walker's Key to the Classical Pronunciation of Greek, Latin, and Scripture Proper Names. A New Edition, revised and enlarged by C. A. GOODRICH, Professor in Yale College. With the addition of a Vocabulary of Modern Geographical Names, and their Pronunciation. With Portrait of Dr. Webster.

The New Words that have been added amount to several thousands, and the Dictionary now contains 27,000 Words more than "Todd's Edition of Johnson."

The work is handsomely printed upon a fine paper, in a clear, readable type, in double columns, royal 8vo. extra cloth, 1265 pages, 16s. ; strongly bound in Russia, marbled edges, 24s. ; ditto, half-Russia, ditto, 20s. ; ditto, calf gilt, ditto, 20s. ; ditto, half-calf, ditto, 18s.

NOTICE.

Webster's Dictionary of the English Language. Royal 8vo. cloth, 16s.

The Trade is respectfully informed that "Webster's Dictionary of the English Language," royal 8vo. can only be obtained of the present Proprietors, Messrs. Ingram, Cooke, and Co., no other English house having any interest whatever in this Property.

It becomes necessary to state this fact, as an erroneous opinion is prevalent that "Worcester's Dictionary," which is avowedly a mere compilation from the materials of Webster (see Title of Worcester), is the book announced as published at 227, Strand.

OPINIONS OF THE PRESS.

"We can have no hesitation in giving it as our decided opinion that this is the most elaborate and successful undertaking of the kind which has ever appeared."—TIMES.

"The very handsome volume before us, a beautifully-printed octavo of nearly 1500 pages, is a condensation of the two-volume quarto work of Dr. Webster. The single-volume version is taken from the last edition of the original work, with all its improvements and additions."—ATLAS.

"Professor Webster's English Dictionary has long become a standard English work, albeit the compiler was an American. The present volume is a revised edition of that great work—for such it strictly is—published in a cheap form."—OBSERVER.

On the 15th of April will be published, in demy 8vo. Pica Type, elegantly bound in cloth,

VOLUME I. of a new and splendid LIBRARY EDITION of

THE

POPULAR POETS AND POETRY OF BRITAIN.

EDITED, WITH BIOGRAPHICAL AND CRITICAL NOTICES,

BY THE REV. GEORGE GILFILLAN,

AUTHOR OF "GALLERY OF LITERARY PORTRAITS," "BARDS OF THE BIBLE," ETC.

This Edition has been in preparation for a considerable time; and is intended to be distinguished by accuracy in the Text, elegance of production, and extreme cheapness.

Six Volumes, in extra cloth binding, will be delivered to Subscribers for the Series, on AN ANNUAL SUBSCRIPTION OF ONE GUINEA.

The Publisher trusts, that in placing within the reach of all who desire to possess the standard literature of our country, an elegant edition of the British Poets, at a price scarce exceeding one-third what is usually charged for such volumes, he will secure an extensive sale.

The issue of the first year will comprise—

1. MILTON'S POETICAL WORKS, Vol. I.	13th April, 1853.
2. MILTON'S DITTO Vol. II.	1st June ,
3. THOMSON'S SEASONS, AND OTHER POEMS	1st Aug. ,
4. G. HERBERT'S POETICAL WORKS	1st Oct. ,
